Concert Synopsis

Musicians' Initiative (MI) returns with our sixth instalment of our wildly successful curated series, featuring a unique narrated segment that brings audiences through a discussion of interesting musical facts with live orchestra demo.

Antonin Dvorak Violin Concerto in A minor Soloist: Sayuri Kuru

Johannes Brahms Symphony No. 3 in F major

Sayuri Kuru currently plays with the Singapore Symphony Orchestra and received her Bachelor of Music Degree in Performance at The Juilliard School in New York. She is a prize-winner at the Osaka International Competition, Japan Classical Violin Competition, and a semi-finalist at the Johansen International Competition.

We look forward to seeing you at the concert!

Best Regards,
Alvin Arumugam
Artistic Director
